

Art Van Files for Bankruptcy

After 61 years of selling furniture to US families, Art Van has been very near and dear to families all over the US.

Earlier this year though, they filed for bankruptcy due to unpayable debts. They opened a new building with a very innovative and modern design back in 2019, located on Ford Road in Canton, MI. This location, as well as hundreds of others nationwide, were eventually shut down.

Love's Furniture Takes Over

"We plan on giving the consumers an even better experience than Art Van ever could!" says Mr. Love, CEO of Love's Furniture. The Detroit News stated that as of 2020, 18 Art Van stores across Michigan have been rebirthed into Love's Furniture.

A majority of the stores have also adopted the modern exterior design, creating a high class image on the company.

Personally, I am looking forward to seeing what Love's offers. It has been featured on Homes & Gardens for it's very sophisticated furniture selections. Check out the new on on Ford Road today, now open!
